By Adv. Sri A. Ajakumar

This petition is coming on for hearing before me on 21-12-2024 and the court on 5-1-2024 passed the following.

ORDER

The above petition is filed under section 9 of insolvency Act 2 of 1956 (herein after referred as insolvency Act) to adjudge the respondents as insolvent.

2. The averments contained in the petition, in short, are as follows:—
The first respondent is a firm registered on 13-9-2007 bearing No. 1749/2007. The second respondent is an unregistered firm. Both these firms were run by the 4th and 5th respondents along with their agents. The 6th respondent is the master brain of the formation of respondents 1 and 2. He formed 3rd respondent firm as an unregistered firm. Respondents appointed agents to collect deposits from public with attractive interest over the deposited amount. Respondents 7 to 9 are the agents of respondents 1 to 3. Petitioners invested amounts to the respondents 1 and 2 expecting attractive interest. The respondents continued their business till the month of September 2008. After getting heavy loss in the business which prevented them from returning the deposits or interest. They collected more than 100 Crores of rupees from more than 1000 investors. They purchased movable and immovable properties in their names and by way of benami transactions. They purchased huge quantity of gold which are in their hands. They deposited more than 20 Crores of rupees in foreign insurance company. Many agents of the respondents own and possess immovable properties purchased out of the investments in the firm. Respondents 4 to 9 created bogus partnership firms and diverted the investments and assets to defraud the public at large. The respondents indebted ₹ 7,00,000 (Rupees Seven lakh only) to the petitioners. The aggregate amount of debt and due to the petitioners exceeds ₹ 500 from the respondents. The debt due to the petitioners are liquidated sums payable immediately towards the demand of each petitioners. The liability of the respondents towards creditors exceeds their assets. Their assets are scheduled as B and C in the petitions. So the respondents may be adjudged as insolvent.

3. The 9th respondent alone filed objection denying that she has no involvement in the transaction of respondents 1 to 8. She did not collect any amount from the petitioners for respondents 1 to 3. She deposited money to the respondent 1. It was not returned. She is an unnecessary party in the petition. She prayed to dismiss the petition against her. Later the name of the 9th respondent was strike off from the party array as per the order of Hon'ble District Court, Thiruvananthapuram in CMA No. 81/2014. Other respondents did not appear and they remained ex parte.
4. The following points arise for consideration:—
 - (1) Whether the Petitioners are entitled to get an order adjudging the respondents as insolvent?
 - (2) Relief ?
5. The oral evidence consists of PW1 and documentary evidence consists of Exts.A1 to A22.
6. Point No.1:—The 5th petitioner was examined as PW1. He gave evidence that the above petition is filed under section 9 of the Insolvency Act to adjudicate respondents as insolvent as the liability of the respondents exceeded assets standing in their name. The respondents carried business in the name of first and second respondents and offered attractive dividend and interest on deposits. They collected more than 100 Crores of rupees from 1000 investors. Ext.A1 is the copy of the registration certificate of first respondent. The second and third respondents are unregistered firms. Respondent 4 and 5 were conducting respondents No. 1 and 2 firms. Respondent No. 6 was their agent and he independently operated the third respondent firm. Respondents 7 to 9 were their agents. They started their business on 13-9-2007 and closed it on the month of September 2008 due to heavy loss. Respondents purchased various movable and immovable properties from the deposit of investors. They invested more than 20 Crores of rupees to foreign insurance company. They purchased huge quantity of gold. They purchased properties in the name of benamies to avoid payment to the investors.

7. Ext.A2 is the cash deposit receipt bearing No. 522 dated 4-3-2008 for rupees 1 lakh deposited by first petitioner to the second respondent. Ext.A3 is the bond dated 21-3-2008 executed by the 2nd respondent in favour of the first petitioner. Ext.A4 is the cash receipt for rupees 2 lakhs issued by the first respondent in favour of the third petitioner. Ext. A5 is the cash receipt for ₹ 50,000 issued by the first respondent in favour of the second petitioner. Ext. A6 is the cash receipt for ₹ 25,000 issued by the first respondent in favour of the 4th petitioner. Ext.A7 is the cash receipt for rupees 1 lakh issued by the first respondent in favour of the 5th petitioner. Ext.A8 is the cash receipt for rupees 1 lakh issued by the first respondent in favour of the 5th petitioner. Ext.A9 is the cash receipt for rupees 1 lakh issued by the first respondent in favour of the 5th petitioner. The respondents did not repay the deposits inspite of repeated demands. Later they closed the business and absconded. Some of them were arrested by the police. There were 32 cases registered against the respondents. Exts.A10 to A22 are the certified copy of FIR and final reports in respect of some of the cases lodged against the respondents. It is seen from the evidence of PW1 that the petitioners invested money before respondent No. 1. Respondents promised to pay the amount with interest. But they did not discharge their debts. It is seen that respondents 6 to 8 are the agents of respondents 1 to 3. There is no documents to show that respondents 6 to 8 collected any amount from the petitioners. On the other hand, it has come out that the respondents 1 to 5 collected money from the petitioners and keeping away with an intention to defeat or delay the payment to its creditors. It is seen from the report of official receiver that more than 2500 persons deposited money before respondents 1 to 5. They filed an application before the receiver to array them in the list of creditors. The Petition B and C properties are not sufficient to satisfy the debt of the creditors.
8. In order to attract Section 9 of the Insolvency Act the amount of debt must be above ₹ 500 and debt must be liquidated sum payable and the petition to adjudicate insolvent shall be filed within 3 years from the date of cause of action. In the present case the oral evidence of PW1 coupled with the contents of Ext.A2 to A9 documents would show that the debt involved is above ₹ 500 and same is liquidated sum payable; The transaction involved in the above case occurred in between the month of March 2008 and August 2008. The above petition was filed in the year 2008 itself. So all the conditions to attract Sec. 9 of the Insolvency Act are complied with. It is proved that the liability of respondents 1 to 5 exceeds their assets. So the petitioners are entitled to get an order adjudging respondents 1 to 5 as insolvent. Point No. 1 is answered accordingly.
9. Point No. 2:—In the result, the above petition is allowed and thereby respondents 1 to 5 are adjudged as insolvent. They are at liberty to file application for discharge within 3 months. Publish order of adjudication in gazette. Petitioners are allowed to recover costs.

(Dictated to the Confidential Assistant, transcribed and typed by her, corrected and pronounced by me in open court on this the 5th January, 2024.)
